WHIRLWIND GOLF CLUB AT WILD HORSE PASS

Chandler, Arizona | 480.940.1500 | www.WhirlwindGolf.com

A desert oasis carved out of the breathtaking Sonoran Desert landscape, Sheraton Wild Horse Pass Resort & Spa is as beautiful as it is exciting. Surrounded by ancient vistas, unspoiled mountains and roaming wild horses, Wild Horse Pass embodies the very essence of indulgence while respectfully preserving the quiet serenity created by its indigenous Native American tribes.

Guests looking to unwind can find relaxation and inner peace in any of the 17 treatment rooms at the 17,500-square-foot Aji Spa. For adventure-seekers, the Koli Equestrian Center offers riding lessons, trail rides and outdoor events, in addition to being equipped with tennis courts and jogging trails. Guests will delight in the resort's four pools, complete with cascading waterfalls and an enormous waterslide modeled after the ancient Casa Grande Ruins, as well as the 2.5-mile replica of the Gila River offering scenic boat rides to shuttle guests to the Wild Horse Pass Casino.

For a truly unique Southwest golf experience, look no further than the Troon Golf-managed Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass. Whirlwind Golf Club boasts two world-class, Gary Panks-designed golf courses – Devil's Claw and Cattail. Draped over 242 acres of desert landscape, the two exceptional par-72 courses reflect the pristine beauty of the mountainous desert terrain. Affording spectacular views of the surrounding Sierra Estrella Mountains and Gila River Indian Community, both designs impress and challenge golfers of all skill levels; however, where the similarities end, the drama begins. While Devil's Claw features sweeping elevation changes, devious bunkers and smaller
